

ALL THE PLACES OF THE BIBLE

This article identifies all of the places named in the Bible, excluding the deuterocanonical books. The place names are arranged alphabetically as they appear in the King James Version, with variant spellings enclosed in brackets []. The suggested meaning of the names is then given in parentheses (). Under each entry, various places bearing this name are differentiated by boldface brackets, like this [1] ; [2]; and so on. Then follows a description of each place, with several Bible references to it.

The meanings of the names are not infallibly accurate; they are simply interesting possibilities. These place names are ancient, many are pre-Israelite, and their history is obscure and uncertain.

Often a Hebrew name refers to both a place and a person. In such cases, you will find the same name in "All the People of the Bible."

Different names were used to refer to certain sites in different periods of history (e.g., Accho and Ptolemais). We have grouped these names under the most familiar biblical name, cross-referencing the other names to it. Modern place names are given under most of the biblical names.

M

Maaleh-acrabbim [Akrabbim] ("ascent of scorpions"), a high place which marks part of the boundary of Judah between Kedish and the Dead Sea (Josh. 15:3; Num. 34:4). Akrabbim is a shortened form of the name.

Mesha ("salvation"), a boundary marker of the descendants of Joktan (Gen. 10:30). It seems to be west of Sephar. See also "All the People of the Bible."

Mesopotamia ("between two rivers"), a region located between the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers (Gen. 24: 10; Deut. 23:4), excluding the mountain regions where the rivers take their rise and the low-lying plains of Babylon.

Metheg-ammah ("bridle of bondage"), a stronghold of the Philistines captured by David (2 Sam. 8: 1). Many scholars believe that the name refers to Gath.

Michmash [Michmas] ("he that strikes"), a town of Benjamin (1 Sam 13:5; Isa. 10:28; Ezra 2:27). The pass of Mukkmash retains the name. The town is 12.1 km. (7.5 mi.) northeast of Jerusalem and east of Bethaven.

Michmethah ("the gift of a striker"), a landmark boundary of Manasseh on the western side of the Jordan, east of Shechem (Josh. 17:7).

Middin ("judgment"), a village in the wilderness of Judah (Josh. 15:61). It is probably modern Khirbet Abu Tabak in the Valley of Achor.

Midian [Madian] ("contention"), the land of the descendants of Midian beyond the Jordan. It included

Edom, the Sinai Peninsula, and Arabian Petra (Exod 2:15-16; Judg. 6:1; Acts 7:29). See also "All the People of the Bible."

Migdalel ("tower of God"), a fortified city of Naphtali (Josh. 19:38). It may be modern Mujeidil 20.1 km. (12.5 mi.) northwest of Kedesh [Kades].

Migdalgad ("tower compassed about"), a lowland city of Judah (Josh. 15:37); probably modern Khirbet el-Mejdeleh 8 km. (5 mi.) south of Beit Jibrin.

Migdol ("tower"). [1] A location in the extreme north of Egypt (Jer. 44:1; 46:14). [2] An encampment of the Israelites west of the Red Sea (Exod. 14:2; Num 33:7).

Migron ("fear"). [1] A Benjamite village north of Michmash (Isa. 10:28). It may be modern Makrum. [2] If there were two Migrons, the second was located at the outermost part of Gibeah and considerably south of Michmash (1 Sam. 14:2). Tell Miryam has been suggested as the site.

Miletus [Miletum] ("scarlet"), a coastal city of Ionia (Acts 20: 15; 2 Tim. 4:20). It was 57.9 km, (36 mi.) south of Ephesus.

Millo ("fulness"). [1] A bastion in Jerusalem built in anticipation of an Assyrian siege (2 Sam. 5:9; 1 Kings 9: 15). [2] An acropolis of Shechem, a high platform of artificial fill (Judg. 9:6, 20).

Minni ("prepared"), a portion of the land of Armenia (Jer. 51:27). It was directly south of Lake Urmia and next to the Kingdom of Ararah of the Araxes River.

Minnith ("prepared"), a location east of the Jordan where Jephthah slaughtered the Ammonites (Judg. 11:33; Ezek. 27:17). It may be modern Khirbet Hamzeh 6.4 km. (4 mi.) northeast of Hebron.

Misgab ("light"), an unidentified location in Moab (Jer. 48: 1). It may not be a proper name.

Mishal [Misheal] ("requiring"), a territorial town of Asher (Josh. 19:26; 21:30); not to be confused with Mashal.

Misrephoth-maim ("hot waters"), a location in northern Palestine (Josh 11:8; 13:6). It was on the frontier of the country of the Sidonians. It is identified with modern Khirbet el-Musheir-efeh 17.7 km. (11 mi.) north of Accho and 8 km. (5 mi.) from the Mediterranean.

Mithcah ("sweetness"), an unidentified encampment of the Israelites in the wilderness (Num. 33:28).

Mitylene ("purity"), the principal city of the Island of Lesbos off the western coast of Asia Minor (Acts 20: 14).

Mizar ("little"), a hill east of the Jordan, probably within sight of Mount Hermon, on Lebanon's eastern slope (Psa. 42:6).

Mizpah [Mizpeh] ("a watchtower"). [1] A mound of stones on Mount Gilead (Gen. 31:49). [2] A Hivite settlement in northern Palestine at the foot of Mount

Hermon (Josh. 11:3). [3] A city in the lowlands of Judah (Josh. 15:38). It was just north of Eleutheropolis [Beit Jibrin]. [4] A town in Gilead east of the Jordan (Judg. 11:34). It is possibly identical with Ramath-Mizpeh. [5] A town of Benjamin just north of Jerusalem (Josh. 18:26; 1 Kings 15:22). The exact site is uncertain. [6] A place in Moab (1 Sam. 22:3); perhaps modern Rujm el-Meshrefeh west-southwest of Madaba.

Moladah ("generation"), a southern city of Judah (Josh. 15:26; Neh. 11:26).

Moreh ("stretching"). [1] The first stopping place of Abraham after he entered Canaan (Gen. 12:6). It was near Shechem. [2]. A hill lying at the foot of the valley of Jezreel (Judg. 7: 1). It is probably modern Jebel Dahy or Little Hermon about 12.9 km. (8 mi.) northwest of Mount Gilboa.

Moresbeth-gath ("possession of Gath"), the home town of Micah (Mic. 1:14). It may be modern Tell ej-Judeiyeh about 32 km. (2 mi.) north of Eleutheropolis.

Moriah ("bitterness of the Lord"). [1] An elevation in Jerusalem on which Solomon built the temple (2 Chron. 3:1). Probably the same hilltop was used as the threshing floor of Araunah. The name Moriah was possibly ascribed by the Chronicler because of its traditional meaning (2 Sam. 24: 18; 2 Chron. 3: 1). [2] The hill on which Abraham was prepared to sacrifice Isaac (Gen. 22:2). The site is uncertain, but Samaritans identify Moriah with Moreh [1]. This seems unlikely.

Mosera ("bonds"), the location of an Israelite wilderness encampment near Mount Hor on the border of Edom (Deut. 10:6).

Moseroth ("discipline"), a desert encampment of the Hebrews (Num. 33:30). Some identify it with Mosera (q.v.).

Meggido. Joshua conquered the city which stood at this site in the Carmel Mountains during his conquest of Canaan (Josh. 12:21); it was then given to the tribe of Manasseh (Josh. 17:11). King Solomon fortified the city and established accommodations for his chariots and horses here (1 Kings 9:15-19). Many people believe that the end-time battle of Armageddon (Hebrew, "hill of Meggido") will take place in this area.
